Best Youth Publication Awards – 2024

The Indian Association for Social Sciences and Health (IASSH) is a professional association of social scientists with more than 1,300 life members (www.iassh.org). IASSH is pleased to announce a competition for the best research publications authored by young researchers. To encourage academic scholarship and quality scientific publications in social sciences and health studies, we invite young researchers to submit their recent journal articles for consideration for the Best Youth Publication Awards.

Eligibility Criteria:

1. The applicant must be an Indian citizen currently pursuing a PhD or working in an Indian institution or university.
2. The applicant should be under 35 years of age as of January 1, 2024 (for women, the age limit is 38 years).
3. The paper submitted for award consideration must have been published in a refereed academic journal in 2023.
4. The applicant should be the sole or first author of the published paper.
5. The paper should broadly address health issues from a social sciences perspective.

The publications will be evaluated by an Expert Committee appointed by the IASSH. The authors of the selected best publications will be awarded a certificate and a cash prize of Rs. 25,000 each. The winners from previous years and the selected papers can be accessed at: <https://iassh.org/PublicationAwards.html>

Young researchers may submit their applications to the IASSH Secretariat (email: iassh2004@gmail.com) by October 31, 2024, along with their Curriculum Vitae, published article, and date of birth certificate.

The winners of the awards will be announced on our website (www.iassh.org) by the end of November 2024 and will be invited to receive their awards at the next Annual Conference of the IASSH.
